

LEADERSHIP

with
GLENN CAPELLI

123

Innovation Leadership is not just a “stand up and follow me” charge towards a singular vision. Innovation requires a distinctive kind of leadership one that develops a sustainable culture - an environment where people are willing and able to generate ideas solve problems and make things happen. Leadership 123 gives you the opportunity to become the kind of leader that creates Group Genius through

1. Knowing your own style
2. Understanding Creative Collaboration
3. Developing a Creative Community

1 THE POWER OF ONE Self Aware Leadership

Self knowledge mightn't be as easy as you think. Before you can lead others you must know yourself and stand comfortable and strong in the knowledge of who you are

2 THE POWER OF TWO Pair Aware Leadership

A dyad is a group of two in an on-going interaction the smallest possible social relationship and often the most intense. We look at creative coupling and why $1 + 1 = \text{infinity}$

3 THE POWER OF MORE Community Aware Leadership

Great leaders see their role not as take-charge direction setters but primarily as creators of a context in which others are willing and able to follow

How to move from take-charge leadership patterns to grass roots shepherding

Leadership and Learning Styles

Innovative face-to-face interactions

Creative pairing and four ways to use it

Praise based criticism

What's your story? How to connect people through shared vision and values

How belief in a common story can harness the power of large and unfamiliar groups

The Culture & Character of Collective Genius

What will the spirit level of your next event be?

Talk to us and discover the possibilities

m 0412 166 169 or 0413 020 953

e info@glenncapelli.com